'Tis Good, Lord, to Be Here Robinson / CARLISLE Z 4: 'Tis good, Lord, be here! Your glo - ry fills the night; to 1. 2. 'Tis good, Lord, be here, your beau - ty to be hold, to _ fill - er the hope things be, 3. Ful of past, our of to of your king dom 4. Ве fore death, see we taste we come; 5. 'Tis good, Lord, to be here! Yet we may not re main; B your ments, like un - bor - rowed light. 1. face and the shine with gar sun, 2. where Ε li - jah stand, your Mo and mes - sen - gers of old. ses _ 3. we hail your bod -у glo - ri - fied and our re demp - tion see. hill 4. vi sion bright and home. long to hold the make this our we 5. but since bid leave the mount, come with us to the plain. you us

Inspiration: Luke 9:32-33. Lyrics: 66.86; Joseph A. Robinson, 1858-1933, in 1888. Music: CARLISLE; Charles Lockhart, 1745-1815.