

Holy Light on Earth's Horizon

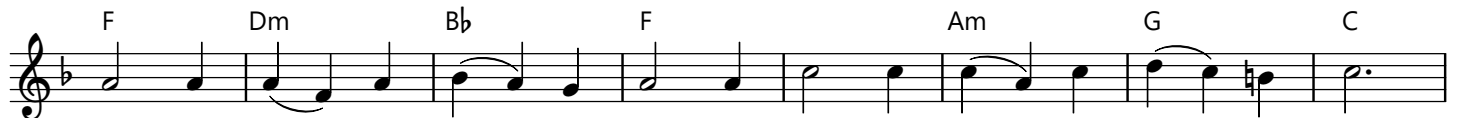

Caswall / BLAENWERN

1. Ho - ly light on earth's hor - i - zon, star of hope to fall - en man,
2. Moth - er of the world's Re - deem - er, prom - ised from the dawn of time:
3. Earth be - low and high - est hea - ven praise the splen - dour of thy state,

1. light a - mid a world of shad - ows, dawn of God's re - demp - tive plan.
2. how could one so high - ly fav - oured share the guilt of Ad - am's crime?
3. thou who now art crowned in glo - ry wast con - ceived im - mac - u - late.

1. Cho - sen from e - ter - nal a - ges, thou a - lone of all our race,
2. Sun and moon and stars a - dorn thee, sin - less Eve, tri - um - phant sign;
3. Hail, be - lov - èd of the Fa - ther, moth - er of his on - ly Son,

1. by thy Son's a - ton - ing mer - its wast con - ceived in per - fect grace.
2. thou art she who crushed the ser - pent, Mar - y, pledge of life di - vine.
3. mys - tic bride of Love e - ter - nal, hail, thou fair and spot - less one!

Inspiration: "Alma lux", Latin, 17th cent.
Lyrics: 87,87 D; attr. Edward Caswall, 1814-1878.
Music: BLAENWERN; William P. Rowlands, 1860-1937, in Henry H. Jones' "Cân a Moliant", 1915.