

I Sing the Mighty Power of God

Isaac Watts / GOSHEN

1. I sing the mighty pow'r of God that made the mountains rise, that spread the flowing seas abroad,
and built the lofty skies.
I sing the wisdom that ordained
the sun to rule the day;
the moon shines full at God's command,
and all the stars obey.

2. I sing the goodness of the Lord that filled the earth with food;
God formed the creatures with a word,
and then pronounced them good.
Lord, how your wonders are displayed
where'er I turn my eye;
if I survey the ground I tread,
or gaze upon the sky!

3. There's not a plant or flow'r below
but makes your glory known;
and clouds arise, and tempests blow
by order from your throne.
Your creatures, countless though they be,
are subject to your care.
There's not a place where we can flee,
but you are present there.

Lyrics: 86.86 D; Isaac Watts, 1674-1748, in "Divine and Moral Songs for the Use of Children", 1715, as "I Sing th'Almighty Power of God".
Music: GOSHEN (aka MOZART); William Gawler's "Hymns and Psalms Used at the Asylum for Female Orphans (1785-1789)", 1789.
