

1. Je - ru - sa - lem, my hap - py home, when
2. O hap - py har - bour of the saints, O
3. In thee no sick - ness may be seen, no
4. Je - ru - sa - lem, Je - ru - sa - lem, God
5. Thy saints are crowned with glo - ry great; they
6. Ah, my sweet home, Je - ru - sa - lem, would

1. shall I come to thee? When shall my sor - rows
2. sweet and pleas - ant soil! In thee no sor - row
3. hurt, no ache, no sore; in thee there is no
4. grant I once may see thy end - less joys, and
5. see God face to face; a thou - sand years seem
6. God I were in thee! Would God my woes were

1. have an end? Thy joys when shall I see?
2. may be found, no grief, no care, no toil.
3. dread of death, but life for ev - er - more.
4. of the same par - tak - er ev - er be.
5. but a day, most hap - py is that place.
6. at an end, thy joys that I may see.