

Man of Sorrows, Wrapt in Grief

Matthew Bridges / ABERYSTWYTH

1. Man of sor - rows, wrapt in grief, bow thine ear to
2. By the gar - den, fraught with woe, whith - er thou full
3. By the chal - ice brim - ming o'er with dis - grace and
4. Man of sor - rows, let thy grief pur - chase for us

1. our re - lief; thou for us the path hast trod of the
2. oft wouldst go; by thine ag - o - ny of prayer in the
3. tor - ment sore; by those lips, which fain would pray that it
4. our re - lief; Lord of mer - cy, bow thine ear, slow to

1. dread - ful wrath of God; thou the cup of fire hast drained
2. des - o - la - tion there; by the dire and deep dis - tress
3. might but pass a - way; by the heart which drank it dry,
4. an - ger, swift to hear; by the Cross - 's roy - al road

1. till its light a - lone re - mained. Lamb of love, we
2. of that mys - t'ry fath - om - less; Lord, our tears in
3. lest a reb - el race should die, be thy pit - y,
4. lead us to the throne of God, there for aye to

1. look to thee: hear our mourn - ful lit - a - ny!
2. mer - cy see: heark - en to our lit - a - ny!
3. Lord, our plea: hear our sol - emn lit - a - ny.
4. sing to thee heav'n's tri - um - phant lit - a - ny.