Sing, My Tongue, the Saviour's Glory

Aquinas

Stanzas 1 to 4 are repeated as necessary until the procession reaches the place of repose. Stanzas 5 and 6 are sung while the Blessed Sacrament is incensed.

- Sing, my tongue, the Saviour's glory, of his flesh the myst'ry sing: of the Blood, all price exceeding, shed by our immortal King, destined for the world's redemption from a noble womb to spring.
- Of a pure and spotless virgin born for us on earth below, he as man, with us conversing, stayed, the seeds of truth to sow; then he closed in solemn order wondrously his life of woe.
- On the night of that last supper, seated with his chosen band he, the Paschal victim eating, first fulfils the Law's command; then as food for his apostles gives himself with his own hand.
- 4. Word made flesh, the bread of nature by his word to flesh he turns; wine into his blood he changes: what through sense no change discerns? Only be the heart in earnest, faith her lesson quickly learns.
- Down in adoration falling, this great sacrament we hail; over ancient forms of worship newer rites of grace prevail; faith will tell us Christ is present, when our human senses fail.
- Glory let us give and blessing to the Father and the Son, honour, might and praise addressing while eternal ages run; and the Spirit, too, confessing who proceeds from both as One.
