

Vexilla Regis prodeunt
Abroad the Regal Banners Fly

Walter K. Blount / ANDERNACH

1. A - broad the re - gal ban - ners fly, now shines the
2. Who, wound - ed with a dread - ful spear, did pur - pose -
3. That which the proph-et - king of old hath in mys -
4. O love - ly and re - splend - ent Tree, a - dorned with
5. Blest Tree, whose hap - py branch - es bore the wealth that
6. Hail Cross, our hope; on thee we call, who keep this
7. Blest Trin - it - y, we prais - es sing to thee, from

1. Cross - 's mys - ter - y; up - on it Life did
2. ly to wash us clear from stain of sin, pour
3. te - rious verse fore - told, is now ac - comp - lished,
4. pur - pled maj - es - ty; culled from a wor - thy
5. did the world re - store; the beam that did that
6. sol - emn fes - ti - val; grant to the just in -
7. whom all gra - ces spring; ce - les - tial crowns on

1. death en - dure, and yet by death did life pro - cure.
2. out a flood of pre - cious wa - ter mixed with blood.
3. whilst we see God rul - ing na - tions from a tree.
4. stock, to bear those limbs which made thee ho - ly there.
5. bod - y weigh which raised up hell's ex - pect - ed prey.
6. crease of grace, and ev - 'ry sin - ner's crimes ef - face.
7. those be - stow who con - quer by the Cross be - low.