

Christ, Our Lord, the Prince of Ages

anonymous / LAUDA ANIMA

1. Christ, our Lord, the Prince of a - ges, Christ, the
2. Come, O Lord, and claim your king - dom, reb - el
3. On our own dear land, Aus - tral - ia, let the

1. na - tions' glo - rious King, whom we praise with ex - ul -
2. hearts your grace can gain; bend the stub - born will of
3. light of mer - cy shine, that in ho - ly Church u -

1. ta - tion, saints and an - gels an - swer - ing: to your
2. rul - ers who from hom - age still re - frain: in the
3. nit - ed, all may know the sav - ing sign: Christ up -

1. throne with true de - vo - tion, hearts and minds and sens - es bring.
2. home as in the cit - y be su - preme, O Christ, and reign.
3. on the cross up - lift - ed draw - ing all with love di - vine.

Lyrics: 87.87.87; anonymous.

Music: LAUDA ANIMA; John Goss, 1800-1880, in Robert Brown-Borthwick's "Supplemental Hymn and Tune Book", 1869.