

Christ, Our Lord, the Prince of Ages

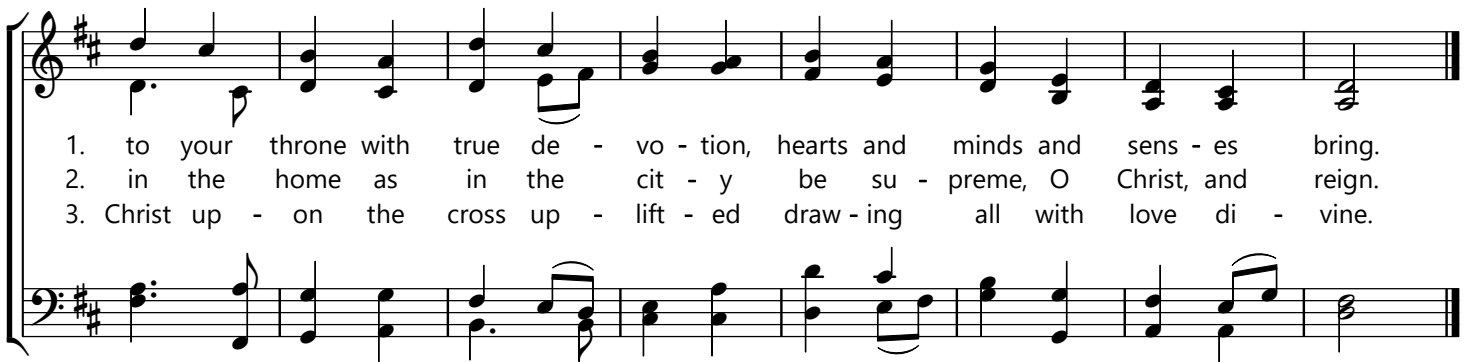

anonymous / LAUDA ANIMA

1. Christ, our Lord, the Prince of a - ges, Christ, the na - tions' glo - rious King,
2. Come, O Lord, and claim your king - dom, reb - el hearts your grace can gain;
3. On our own dear land, Aus - tral - ia, let the light of mer - cy shine,

1. whom we praise with ex - ul - ta - tion, saints and an - gels an - swer - ing:
2. bend the stub - born will of rul - ers who from hom - age still re - frain:
3. that in ho - ly Church u - nit - ed, all may know the sav - ing sign:

1. to your throne with true de - vo - tion, hearts and minds and sens - es bring.
2. in the home as in the cit - y be su - preme, O Christ, and reign.
3. Christ up - on the cross up - lift - ed draw - ing all with love di - vine.

Lyrics: 87.87.87; anonymous.

Music: LAUDA ANIMA; John Goss, 1800-1880, in Robert Brown-Borthwick's "Supplemental Hymn and Tune Book", 1869.