

Mary Immaculate, Star of the Morning

Wetherell / LIEBSTER IMMANUEL

1. Mar - y im - mac - u - late, star of the morn - ing,
2. Here in an or - bit of shad - ow and sad - ness
3. Sin - ners, we wor - ship thy sin - less per - fec - tion;
4. Frail is our na - ture, and strict our pro - ba - tion,
5. See how the wiles of the ser - pent as - sail us,
6. Bend from thy throne at the voice of our cry - ing,

1. cho - sen be - fore the cre - a - tion be - gan,
2. veil - ing thy splen - dour, thy course thou hast run;
3. fall - en and weak, for thy pit - y we plead;
4. watch - ful the foe that would lure us to wrong.
5. see how we wa - ver and flinch in the fight;
6. bend to this earth which thy foot - steps have trod;

1. cho - sen to bring, for thy brid - al a - dorn - ing,
2. now thou art throned in all glo - ry and glad - ness,
3. grant us the shield of thy sov - 'reign pro - tec - tion,
4. Suc - cour our souls in the hour of temp - ta - tion,
5. let thine im - mac - u - late mer - it a - vail us,
6. stretch out thine arms to us liv - ing and dy - ing,

1. woe to the ser - pent and res - cue to man.
2. crowned by the hand of thy Sav - iour and son.
3. meas - ure thine aid by the depth of our need.
4. Mar - y im - mac - u - late, ten - der and strong.
5. make of our weak - ness a proof of thy might.
6. Mar - y im - mac - u - late, Moth - er of God.

Lyrics: 11.10.11.10; F.W. Wetherell, 1829-1903.

Music: LIEBSTER IMMANUEL; melody from A. Fritsch's "Himmels-Lust", 1679; harm. by Johann Sebastian Bach, 1685-1750.