

Mary Immaculate, Star of the Morning

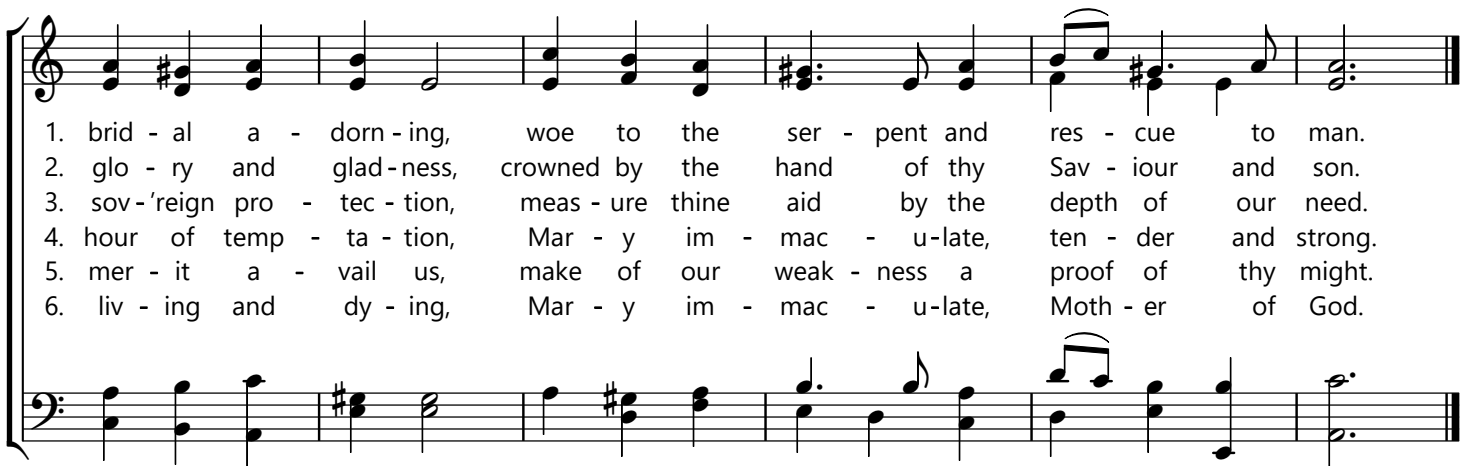

Wetherell / LIEBSTER IMMANUEL

1. Mar - y im - mac - u - late, star of the morn - ing, cho - sen be -
2. Here in an or - bit of shad - ow and sad - ness veil - ing thy
3. Sin - ners, we wor - ship thy sin - less per - fec - tion; fall - en and
4. Frail is our na - ture, and strict our pro - ba - tion, watch - ful the
5. See how the wiles of the ser - pent as - sail us, see how we
6. Bend from thy throne at the voice of our cry - ing, bend to this

1. fore the cre - a - tion be - gan, cho - sen to bring, for thy
2. splen - dour, thy course thou hast run; now thou art throned in all
3. weak, for thy pit - y we plead; grant us the shield of thy
4. foe that would lure us to wrong. Suc - cour our souls in the
5. wa - ver and flinch in the fight; let thine im - mac - u - late
6. earth which thy foot - steps have trod; stretch out thine arms to us

1. brid - al a - dorn - ing, woe to the ser - pent and res - cue to man.
2. glo - ry and glad - ness, crowned by the hand of thy Sav - iour and son.
3. sov - 'reign pro - tec - tion, meas - ure thine aid by the depth of our need.
4. hour of temp - ta - tion, Mar - y im - mac - u - late, ten - der and strong.
5. mer - it a - vail us, make of our weak - ness a proof of thy might.
6. liv - ing and dy - ing, Mar - y im - mac - u - late, Moth - er of God.