

Most Ancient of All Mysteries

Frederick W. Faber / SAINT FLAVIAN

1. Most an - cient of all mys - ter - ies, be -
2. When heav'n and earth were still un - made, when
3. You were not born; there was no source from
4. How won - der - ful cre - a - tion is, the
5. Most an - cient of all mys - ter - ies, be -

1. fore thy throne we lie; have mer - cy now, most
2. time was yet un - known, you, in your ra - diant
3. which your be - ing flowed; there is no end which
4. work which you did bless; what then must you be
5. fore your throne we lie; have mer - cy now and

1. mer - ci - ful, most ho - ly Trin - i - ty.
2. maj - es - ty, did live and love a - lone.
3. thou can reach: for you are sim - ply God.
4. like, dear God, e - ter - nal love - li - ness!
5. ev - er - more, most ho - ly Trin - i - ty.

Lyrics: 86.86; Frederick William Faber, 1814-1863, revised by Geoffrey Laycock, 1927-1986, in the "New Catholic Hymnal", © 1971, Faber Music.
Music: "SAINT FLAVIAN; John Day's "The Whole Booke of Psalmes Collected into Englysh Metre", London, 1562.