

Our Lord the Path of Suffering Trod

Williams / HERRNHUT

1. Our Lord the path of suf - f'ring trod, and, since his blood for man has flowed,
2. No shame to own the cru - ci - fied! Nay, 'tis our im - mor - tal - i - ty
3. Be - hold - ing his pre - des - tined crown, in - to death's arms the mar - tyr goes;
4. Lord, make us your own sol - diers true; grant us brave faith, a spir - it pure;

1. 'tis meet that man should yield to God the life he owes. Al - le - lu - ia!
2. that we con - fess our God who died, and for him die. Al - le - lu - ia!
3. dy - ing, he con - quers death; o'er - thrown, o'er - throws his foes. Al - le - lu - ia!
4. that for your name, your cross in view, we may en - dure. Al - le - lu - ia!

Inspiration: "Ex Quo, Salus Mortalium", Jean-Baptiste de Santeuil, 1630-1697.
Lyrics: 88.84.4; Isaac Williams, 1802-1865, in 1839.
Music: HERRNHUT (aka MEIN SEEL, O HERR, MUSS LOBEN DICH); Bartholomäus Gesius, ca. 1562-1613, or Michael Praetorius, 1571-1621.